Society

THERE has been but slight lull in the weedding excitement the past week, and all the rest of the month the days that pass will chronicle long processions of lovely brides and bridesmaids in the prettiest gowns imaginable going to church for the caremony or down the front stairs of their own homes. In the meantime new engagements are being announced and no end of rumors are about that seem to keep every one in a great state of excitement. The announcement of Miss Helen Pickett Lathrop's engagement to Leshe H. Need, also of this city, has greatly interested so clety. Miss Lathrop has recently returned from an extended stay abroad and has been one of the most popular in Schurles I sellent Mr. Rest is equally well known in society here, and their wedding next apring with be a fashionable stair.
